The sleigh bell jingle is not heard so much as it was.

GREATEST Bargains in white Marcellines Quilts just received at Henry Jacobs'.

About these days look out for a down-hill tendency among the juveniles. Let 'em slide.

The Batesville District Conference convenes in the Bridgeport M. E. Church this afternoon.

PREGNANT citizens last evening patronized the middle of the street in preference to icy pavements.

SQUIRE CALDWELL expects company this morning. He will sell a number of photographs of Wheeling belles at 10 o'clock.

The lockup was empty at 10 o'clock last night, and the chances for an item at the police court this morning are correspondingly slim.

ICE GORGE.—The ice has gorged immediately above the wooden bridge, in Back River. As it is very light, it will probably break up shortly.

PATENT RECEIVED.—Mr. George D. Davis, of Martinsburg, this State, has received a patent for a railway switch. The application was filed December 5, 1873.

ONLY about fifteen traps registered at the police court last night. Considering the inclemency of the weather this is unusual; but a more remarkable fact is that they were all sober.

ROBERT AT WASHINGTON, Pa.—On Saturday night the clerk in Mr. Behler's saloon, at Washington, Pa., was robbed of about $140. His room was entered and his pants carried off. Two men, Rankin and Steep, were arrested and identified as the parties who committed the robbery.

MARRIAGE FUNERAL.—The funeral of Daniel Murry, Esq., from his late residence in the First Ward, yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. Ohio Lodge A. F. and A. M., with representatives from Wheeling Lodge No. 5, Nelson Lodge No. 30, and Bates Lodge No. 33, took part in the ceremonies.

THE RAILROAD WAR.—Under this heading we yesterday morning stated that "While the B. & O. still sells tickets at the reduced rates, the Pennsylvania company has returned to the old figures." We have since been informed that the Pennsylvania company is in the rate from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia, which has been advanced to $10. This company is still selling tickets here and at Bridgeport for $5 to Baltimore and Washington. We were led to make the error by a paragraph which recently appeared in a Pittsburgh paper.

A BAD MAN.—Wm. Shipman, who attempted to blot out the Campbell family at Clinton some days since, was before Squire Gillespie yesterday for examination. The result of the hearing is as follows: To keep the peace toward Eli, Emily and Roberta Campbell, he was required to give bond in the sum of $200 for good behavior; malicious trespass, $300 for appearance at court; for assaulting Eli, Emily, Roberta and Sarah Campbell, $100 in each case to appear at court. The charge of committing an assault on Mary Campbell was dismissed. Shipman found surety in the amounts named.

MEASRS. I. BLUM & BRO.—Among our dry goods dealers none have shown a greater spirit of progression than the firm whose name heads these remarks. Alive to the necessities of the hour, they are the first to announce to our readers their readiness to display a great variety of new Spring goods, comprising suitings in silk and worsted, domestic, house-keeping goods and all such useful articles as are generally sought after at this season of the year. This house is conducting a special sale and is offering attractive bargains, such as kid gloves at 50c a pair (former price $1.25), ribbed hose at 8c a pair, linen cuffs for 15c, such beautiful dress suitings from 25c to 35c, and a great specialty in black alpaca and pure mohairs. The reputation of the house and the well known character of the goods they handle should alone be sufficient to so interest our readers as to compel their attention. We therefore commend their offering to the kind consideration of our readers.

CONTINUED TO MONDAY NEXT.—Yesterday afternoon August Miller, Fritz Winder and August Rust were brought before Squire Clarkson for examination upon a charge of being concerned in a disturbance in Fulton on the night of the 31st of January. Christoff Ropp, who had been severely injured in the row, was unable to appear, and the examination was necessarily postponed until Monday, 16th inst., at 10 A. M. Mr. Orsater, the Prosecuting Attorney, asked that the bonds of the accused be increased to $3,000 each, but as Dr. Bingle testified that Ropp's condition was not dangerous, they remain at $1,000 each, the same as before. All the accused found bail.

POLICE COURT.—The usual Monday morning crowd of idlers was in attendance at this court yesterday.

Daniel Crumbraker was fined $10 and costs for creating tumult and disorder in East Wheeling Saturday night.

Fred. Foreman was charged with committing an assault and battery upon his wife Agnes. He has been before the court before for the same offence. His fine was $10 and costs.

Richard Knowles and James Bulger were charged with disorderly conduct on Friday night at Robinson's stables. The cases were continued to this morning.

ODD FELLOWS MUTUAL AID ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of the Odd Fellows' Mutual Aid Association was held in the Encampment Room last evening. The following gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year: Henry Seamon, Henry Jones, Wm. Taylor, J. G. Collins, Cletus Hauser, Christian Lohmiller, James Hollingsworth, T. R. Bellville, O. K. Ellifritz, John Boring, George McCully, W. S. Tippet, John Brown, A. Harris, A. F. C. Eberling, and Peter Zimmer. The Association adjourned to meet in two weeks for the consideration of the by-laws, which will then be examined in profane sheets.

TO BE INTERRED HERE.—The St. Louis Democrat of Friday last says: "The remains of Capt. R. M. Hill, better known as Turnhill, who died on his farm in Franklin county, Mo., near Pacific City, on the 5th inst., will be interred in the cemetery at Wheeling, West Virginia. The wife of the deceased died on the 7th of November, 1873. Her remains will also be interred in Wheeling at the same time. They leave two children—a son of twenty-one years, and a daughter four years old. Capt. Hill was a brother-in-law of Capt. W. H. Dorsey, now residing in Covington, Ky."

WILL OBEY ORDERS.—Five liquor dealers at Bellaire say in a published notice that they will not sell intoxicating drink, not even wine, beer or cider, to any person after they are notified not to do so by any of the family or relatives; that they do not wish to take bread from any one's mouth, and if any are suffering by reason of money spent with them they will obey all orders not to sell.

NEW BUILDINGS.—The indications are that during the coming season an unusual number of buildings will be erected in this city. Some think the number will be double that of last season. We know of many builders who are already preparing for active service. However, there is always a demand here for rooms, and especially for dwelling purposes.

RATHER UNDECIDED.—The weather clerk yesterday was evidently undecided as to meteorological probabilities. A little sun, snow, hail, etc., gave us variety if not comfort. Turning colder as night approached, all that the sun had converted into slush and water was again transformed into ice, which of course rendered pedestrianism excellent exercise.

THE WHIPLASH.—Business about the wharf has been rather inactive a day or two past. When the river is clear of floating ice, the prospects will brighten somewhat. The local packets, however, are still running, and doing a small business.

THE BETHOVEN HALL.—The Masquerade Ball of the Bethoven Singing Society, at Turner Hall last evening, was a first-class affair. Quite a large crowd was present, the majority of whom were masked. The costumes were varied and original. All enjoyed themselves heartily.

A MORAL COMMUNITY.—The Eighth Ward is a strictly moral community. We have not had the pleasure of recording a criminal item in that locality for about two months. We don't consider it the fault of "Squire Schultz," however.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The youngest child of S. L. Nugent, Esq., in Bridgeport, died suddenly Sunday night. The little one had been ailing only a few days, and its death was entirely unexpected. Lung fever is ascribed as the cause.

HEATED SPECTACULAR.—"I don't believe in Spiritualism. I say this: If a man goes to Heaven he don't want to come back here; if he goes to the other place, he can't come."

The windows of the periodical shop look as if afflicted with a virulent rash, so great are the pictorial preparations for St. Valentine's day.

The candidates are Judges Cramer, Melvin and Cochran. The case can be seen at O. P. Brown's jewelry store, where votes will be received.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.—In making your selection of a Piano or Organ, don't fail to examine the stock of Messrs. Adams & Lucas, 1227 Market street. The instruments they represent, viz: the Steinway, Knabe and Emerson Pianos, the Mason & Hamlin and Smith American Organs, are universally acknowledged to be the leading instruments of the world, and taken together they make an assortment so varied that no one can fail to be suited in the selection of an instrument, either as to price or quality. Inasmuch as many unscrupulous dealers offer for sale instruments of questionable character and inferior quality, it would be well to bear in mind the fact that few persons buy more than one instrument in a lifetime, hence the necessity of making a careful selection, for as thousands of experienced parties can testify, it is cheaper, safer and better to buy instruments of established reputation, of good and responsible makers, than to risk money in doubtful speculations.
